

Oppy International Marine Project Accelerator

Business Development

Conduct analyses to develop your market in France or abroad

- Market analysis and opportunity studies
- Identifying and qualifying business opportunities & potential partners
- Fundraising
- Customer representation and offer promotion

International Project Management

Project Implementation & supervision with the help of local players

- Structuring operations
- Operation Management
- Working with local expertise
- Support in project security

Contract Management

Contract management for complex international projects

- Contract management to support the operation
- Securing commercial and contractual relations
- Negotiation support

Who are we?

For over 20 years, we have worked in the defense, robotics, and floating building sectors in Europe, Canada and Southeast Asia.

Our multidisciplinary team includes marine and electronics engineers, as well as specialists in management, business development, and marketing.

mcantet@oppy.international

www.oppy-international.com

+33626224168